PHOTOS AND LAUGHS

An Exhibition to make you smile by Gemma Parsons.

'Photos and Laughs' is a collection of photographs about dreaming.

Hugo the Weimaraner, arguably Sydney's most precocious pooch is a method actor extraordinaire. His repertoire will both amaze and delight you.

Hugo looks aloof and at home in his gourmet kitchen. There's an air of excitement and wild abandonment in his scuba diving aquatic bath and the stance of cocky nonchalance is undeniable in his buffed and uniformed fire fighter's guise. He is a policeman you will definitely want on your side, an adorable day time soapy doctor who will save lives and break hearts and a jet setting businessman who only travels first class. And so much more.....

Weimaraner's are the supermodels of the dog world. They're tall, sleek and look good in anything! Especially my stilettos! On set, Hugo's a pro. On time and never the prima donna.

Hugo has a swag of emotions and expressions. He grins when he's happy and loves to play with plush, squeaky toys. He is fond of warm bubble baths, cocktail parties, Egyptian cotton and finds stiletto heels quite delectable.

The Weimaraner is a breed of gun dog originally developed for hunting by the court of Weimer in Germany. Who says german engineering only belongs in your BMW? With enough torque to kick start a jumbo, Hugo only has one gear - fast! Yes, Hugo is definitely a dog who enjoys life in the fast lane. He is also a dedicated RSPCA community supporter and 10% of sales proceeds will go directly to supporting the RSPCA for all creatures great and small!

DOGUE was my first shot of Hugo in this series. The idea to take the shots and write a children's book blossomed, and a mock up of the book lead to the opportunity to exhibit the shots at The East Village Hotel in Darlinghurst.

I've enclosed a disc with Hugo's images for the exhibition and would be more than happy to add any further information.

The exhibition opens on August 3, and I'd love to meet you if you have the opportunity to come.

Best regards,

Gemma Parsons
